

Parasite

B	I	N	G	O
_____ eggs can live in the environment for years!	Heartworms are transmitted by _____.	The bacteria, Borrelia burgdorferi, causes _____.		_____ can be passed in the milk while nursing puppies.
	_____ can be transmitted in the placenta.	Hookworms suck _____.	Tapeworms are carried by _____.	The bacteria, Bartonella henselae, causes _____.
Name one of the zoonotic parasites: _____	We recommend using a good flea/tick prevention _____.		_____ cause damage to the heart, lungs, and blood vessels.	We look at _____ samples to identify whipworms.
You can often see segments of _____ in your pet's poop.		_____ is the typical deworming agent we use during puppy visits.	Ticks can become active at temperatures as low as _____.
The Accuplex tests for heartworm _____.	Name one way to manage the environment for ticks: _____.	Ticks have _____ life stages.		Name one way that hookworms can be transmitted: _____